Surrounded by children, grandchildren, great-grandchildren and friends, Mr. and Mrs. T. Richmond Brown of Hanson, well known to a wide circle in this vicinity, will observe on Monday evening in Thomas Hall, Hanson, the golden anniversary of their marriage. They are the parents of six children and have 14 grandchildren and three great grandchildren.

Nearing this half century milestone along the road of their happy, wedded life, Mr. and Mrs. Brown are anticipating the celebration of the anniversary with all the youthful zest of their 70 odd years. Mr. Brown is 73 and Mrs. Brown two years his senior.

Mrs. Brown was Lucy Lincoln, daughter of Rufus Lincoln and Lucy (Cook) Lincoln. She was born in 1840 very near the place where she still resides. Her family is directly related to Abraham Lincoln, he being own cousin to her grandfather.

Her great-grandfather was John Cook, who came over in the Mayflower. Two silver spoons which that noted ancestor brought with him to the new country are still a treasured family heirloom, now in the form of one large spoon and owned by Mrs. Brown's eldest son.

Mrs. Brown has been unusually active in both her home and outside circles and still retains much of her early vigor. She fitted the first shoe ever made in what is now the widely known Commonwealth Shoe factory in Whitman. She is a member of the Hanson Relief Corps and of the Rebekah Lodge of Whitman.

Thomas Richmond Brown was born in Nantucket in 1842, son of Capt. Thomas Brown and Mary (Bunker-Crosby) Brown. Capt. Brown went around the world three times. The old steamer, Island Home, was built for him and for years he ran the steamer from Nantucket to New Bedford. This famous vessel was used in President Lincoln's dispatch boat during the Civil War.

Mr. Brown is still employed at the Commonwealth factory in Whitman where he has been for 25 years. He is a member of Webster Lodge, I.O.O.F. He has one sister, Mrs. B. F. Janes of Massachusetts Ave. Cambridge. Mr. and Mrs. Brown have a summer home in Rocky Nook, Kingston, where they spend much of their time during the summer season. Mr. and Mrs. Brown have both been unusually well and active and until five years ago had never experienced any serious illness.

All but one of Mr. and Mrs. Brown's six children are living. The eldest, Chester Lincoln Brown, died at the age of 14 months. The others are Elton Armington Brown of South Hanson, Mrs. Addie Richmond Copp of this city, Mrs. Mary Davis Kent of this city, William Franklin Brown of Hanson and Mrs. Cora Lincoln Curtis of Whitman. Four generations will be represented at the celebration Monday evening.

Relatives, neighbors, shopmates and friends from Hanson, Whitman and Brockton will be present to tender congratulations to the popular couple. Four grandsons, Harold Brown of Cohasset, Fred Brown of South Hanson, Seward Brown of Cohasset and Richmond Brown, Jr., of Hanson, will usher, and four granddaughters, Miss Cora May Brown, Miss Dorothy Brown, and Miss Lucy Brown of South Hanson, and Miss Madeline Curtis of Whitman will assist in serving refreshments.

Mrs. Brown has no near relatives, with the exception of three cousins in this city, Mrs. M. A. Packard, Mrs. John Alden and Mrs. A. G. Tinkham. Mrs. Packard was married on the same day as Mrs. Brown, and, had Mrs. Packard survived, the coming anniversary would have been a double celebration. Mr. and Mrs. Tinkham have observed already the 50th anniversary of their marriage.

Mrs. Lucy E. Brown, 77, of Hanson, a direct descendant of John Cook, who came to Plymouth on the Mayflower in 1620, and also a distant relative of Abraham Lincoln, died this morning at Hanson after a brief illness of pneumonia. She was a native of Hanson, having lived there all her life. She had been prominent in many affairs of the town.

She was the daughter of Rufus and Lucy Cook Lincoln, and married Richmond Brown. They recently celebrated their golden wedding.

Mrs. Brown was one of the first shoe workers in this section. For 35 years she was a stitcher in the Commonwealth Shoe Company factory at Whitman. She had the distinction of stitching the first shoe manufactured by that company. She worked in the Whitman factory until four years ago, retiring at the age of 73.

She was the mother of six children and had 14 grandchildren, two of which are in France with American forces and one being at Camp Devens, Ayer. She is survived by her husband Richmond Brown, and five children, Mrs. Addie Copp of Brockton, Mrs. Mary Kent of Brockton, Mrs. Cora Curtis of Whitman and William and Elton Brown of Hanson. The funeral will be Saturday afternoon at 2.
